*Suffield High School
Mountain Road
Suffield,
Connecticut*

*We all move
at different speeds,*

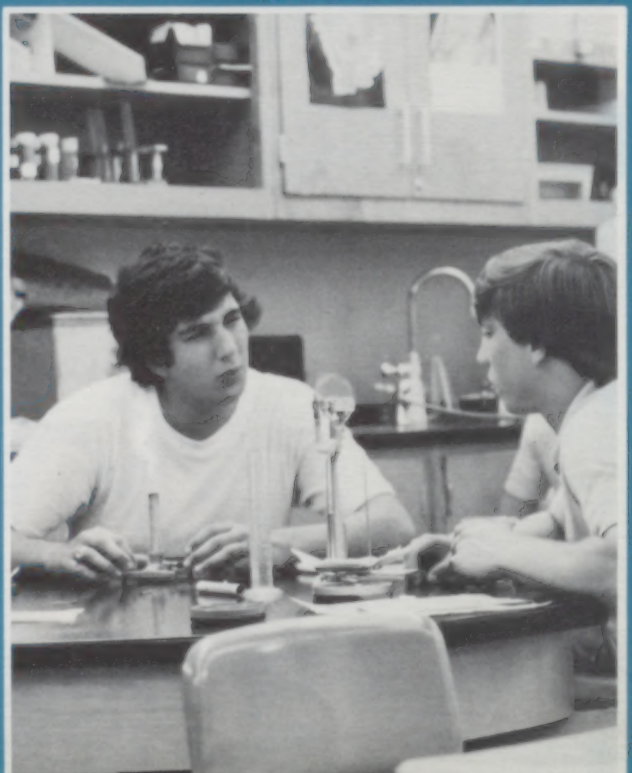

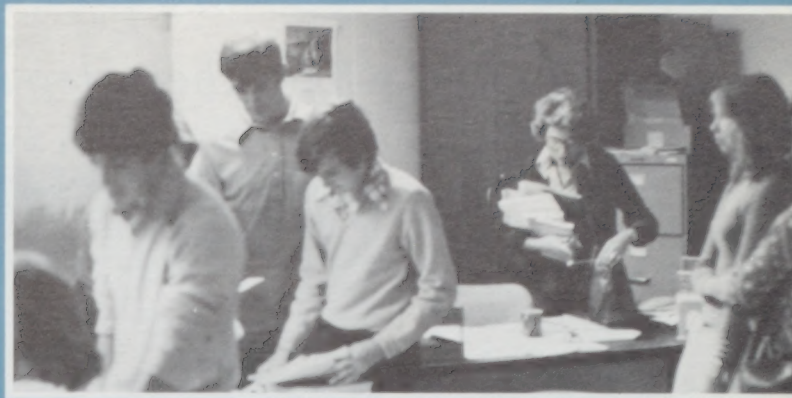

different ways,

to different drummers . . .

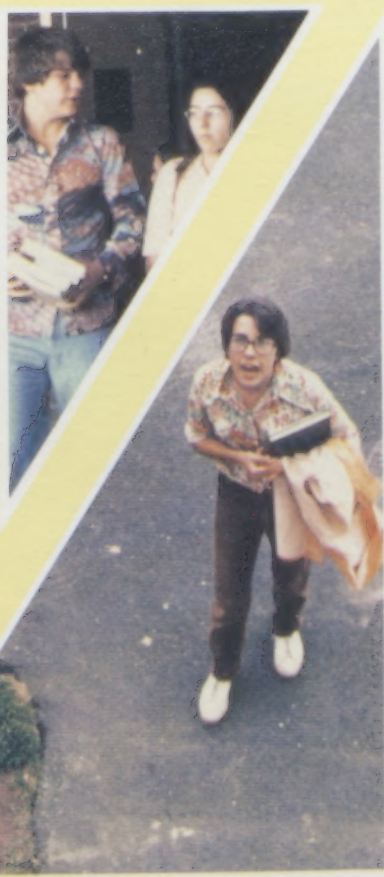

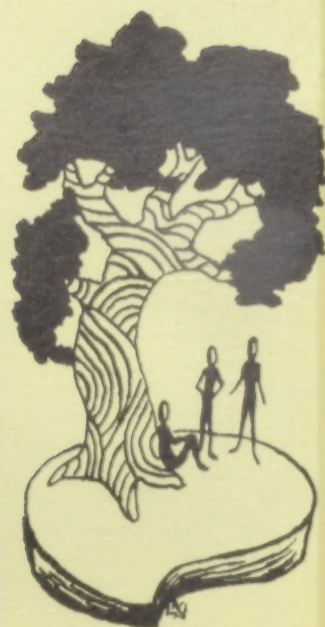

*. . . some sway slowly
to Time's perpetual waltz,*

while others step in syncopation,

and still others let the dance

*run away
with them;*

yet, we are in unison.

SUEFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
 WE DEDICATE THIS
 YEARBOOK TO THE
 MAGICAL SPIRIT
 THAT TRANSFORMED
 US FROM INDIVIDUALS
 INTO A CLASS;
 MAY A PART OF
 IT STAY WITH US ALWAYS.
 CLASS OF SEVENTY SEVEN

HARMONY

"And then I guided him down the stairs . . . backwards."

"Who said a square couldn't fit into a triangle?"

Alison Arcari

"Can you beat that?"

"Give me those ruby red slippers, my little pretty."

"They tell me Elizabeth Ray started this way."

"Well, people, excitement is my middle name."

Karen Alderman

"American Gothic"? Cute . . .

"We're not here to make THAT kind of pot."

Dan Light

"Sorry, dear, I'm going to lunch."

Christian Hovey, Linda Tuttle

Marion Smith

"Paul Roche? Must be new."

Ken Austin

Kip Fleming, Ricky Brunton

"His name was . . . Manuel Elite . . ."

"Nobody could run 9 miles and live to tell about it."

Lisa Newell

Carol Shelanskas

"Okay gang, here's the plan . . ."

"You ARE kidding about the six ton piñata?"

"Funny green stuff" You're soaking in it!"

"Haven't I read this somewhere before?"

Cindy Parent

"As Confucius say: Chinese is good language for obscene utterances."

"Put me down for "Foolish Corky" in the third."

"Yes my boy, a mere pull on the trigger will reduce you to nothingness."

"Piñata accident in B207?"

"Big Brother is watching you."

"Wanna see time fly?"

"War and Peace in three minutes - what took you so long?"

"Must be a bad connection."

Teachers Teach

A is for Abrams, the ultimate athlete
Long distance runner with incredible feet.
A is for Andersen; isn't that "neat"? SAT deadlines
she tells us to meet.
A also brings Mr. Arsenault our way With coffee and doughnuts, he's president of the S.E.A.

B

Baker and Biology both begin with B
Assistant Track Coach and advisor is he.
B is for Bennett, Biology and books
If you see it, draw it, no matter how bad it looks.
B is for Berger, your shoulder he'll tap
While opening his door, he says "Let's rap."
B stands for Board of Ed,
budgets, and Bio II,
I'd go to that meeting,
wouldn't you?

C

C is for Connelly who is formidable (eh, hein?);
To stick on that diet, get away from la table!
Here's to the cooks who provide the nutrition
While they toil and boil away in kitchen.

C is for Corcoran. Freshman: BEWARE!!
It's not just what's said, it's mostly the stare.
C is for Crystal, a new member of our crew
She teaches sociology and is good at it, too.

Driver's Ed and Davis come under the letter D,
He's also quite a teacher of American History.
D includes Duni who is relatively new
Except to those freshmen whose number is few.

E is for Egolf, the nurse of our school
If we want to play sick, it is her we must fool.
Dr. Evans keeps things bouncing along

F

F is for Fisher who is the library queen
We must be quiet, her hearing is keen.
F is for Fisher who knows skiing is fun
He teaches us Physics and Algebra I.
F is for Formanek, the automotive mechanic
If your car won't start, call him - don't panic.
F is for Fuller, the "S" not the "Z".
He guides us through high school and makes it easy.
The "Z" of the Fullers is equally smart
In fact, he's the head of Industrial Arts.

G

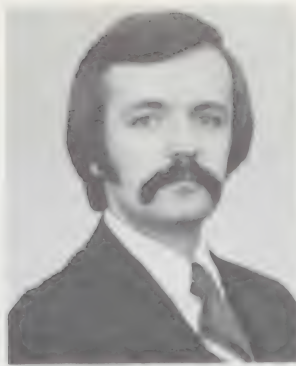

G as all you killers know, is quite a classy man.
His way of teaching is anything but antediluvian.
G is for Gowdy and a part of his drink
If it wasn't for Star Trek he'd go off the brink.
Mr. Graft is an expert who's quite a consuler
He teaches what's known as productive agriculture.
Give a hockey stick to Mild-Mannered Green
And Lightning Larry graces the scene.

As the sign on his door says, he's quite a Work Dude.
G is for Grous who somehow manages to survive
Though after teaching Math, he teaches us to drive.

H

H is for Hartmann, the tennis pro
On or off the court, he's always on the go.
H is for Heywood with her flaming red hair,
With ditto fluid requisites, she's hard to compare.
H is for Howard and History book
Which he'll probably write about Stoney Brooke.

J

J is for Janitors who chase out the mice
They clean and they shine and get rid of the lice.
J is for Jensen, a bicycling king
But natural resources are really his thing.

S is for Schramm and Suffield High
Without her the cheerleaders would never get by.
S is for the secretaries whom we should appreciate more
They do the work of twelve and they only number four.
S stands strong like Mrs. Sikes
The special teacher whom everyone likes.
S is for the Head of the Social Science Department
Sinicropo
With the track and field team, as coach, he must cope.
S is for Smoolca; when you're typing she's pleased
Just as long as you're sure not to look at your keys.
S is for Sznajder, though she gives us no grade
We still drive her crazy 'cause she's the library aide.

teaching Home Ec is most of her day.

T is for Tanguay with his guiding hand He's the music director and conducts concert band.
 T is for Thomas, his affection abounds Though his pats on the back leave some kids on the ground.

KENNETH F. GALLAGHER

"Ken"

There are two ways of spreading light: to be the candle, or the mirror that reflects it.

JACKLYN J. GEMME

"Jackie"

I do my thing, and you do yours,
I am not in this world to look up to your expectations
And you are not in this world to look up to mine.
You are you, and I am I.
And if by chance we meet again in life
It will be beautiful.

JILL ELIZABETH GORMAN

Don't listen for me, you may not hear my footsteps.
Don't look for me, your eyes can't perceive.
Don't wait for a touch, my hand is not there.
Don't try to feel my warmth because it is an unknown.
But give all your love to the one you love.
And I shall be beside you. You shall find my hand.
And you shall hear my footsteps in the beat of your heart.

KATHERINE ELLEN GOULD

"Kat"

I've never felt so alive,
I'm learning
that there's such a world out there . . .
and none of us
has ever seen or felt it . . .

LOIS DENEISE GRAHAM

"Tweezes"

Feel your life flow of yourself not feeling sadness too much or wanting happiness too much. Walking softly and hurting nothing if you can help it.

JV Basketball 1; Track and Field 2, 3.

THOMAS JOSEPH GRAHAM

"Tom"

If you need a helping hand
Look at the end of your arm.

FFA 1, 2, 3, 4.

STEVEN PAUL GRANO

"Steve"

Ford gets you where you're going,
but Chevy gets you back.

VINCENT GRIECO

"Vinnie" "Bo"

Your friend is your needs answered. He is your field which you sow with love and reap with thanksgiving. And she is your board and your fireside. For you come to him with your hunger, and you seek her for peace . . . And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter and sharing of pleasures. For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

THERESA GREEN

People who must shout to be heard usually aren't worth listening to.

ANTHONY DONNELL MARTIN

"Pretty Tony"

"Give me a place to stand and I will move the world. My ultimate goal in life is never to reach it finally, because for me it would be like putting a ceiling on the creativeness of my continuous lighter-than-air flow upward. Putting a roof over your head diminishes what more there is to acquire. Without a ceiling comes and open mind or truth of what is. My work is to shine in the light of perfection as a star example of man's true creator - Himself.

NANCY CLAIRE MARTIN

Time is:
 Too slow for those who wait,
 Too swift for those who fear,
 Too long for those who grieve,
 Too short for those who rejoice,
 But for those who love - Time is Eternity.

CHORDS AND LYRICS

Listening to that different drummer, we lost our balance, tripping into our first year of high school. We heard the beat and felt the pulse - steady but not (we would learn later) always so methodical. We slaved for a day, rallied some pep and hopped in boxes now marked with our individuality. We carried on tradition as if it were setting a precedent while sporting those eternal jackets.

Now in the mainstream, we began to flow with the river, treading some water, but being swept along by the current. Silly, silly sophomores? No one could ever call us that, although we did play the fool over rings (for the fingers - the bells would come later) and the juniors' prom (we just washed their cars that day!) But our spirit never died as we again ran away victorious with that coveted title.

"Precious and Few" were the moments left for us as we swayed on one star-strewn evening. Already looking over our shoulders, we smiled proudly at our hat-trick pep rally win and our highly caloric (if not highly profitable) candy sale ("next year we'll sell Clearasil after the juniors' candy sale and make a haul"). The water was passing over the dam in a yearbook and in our years here.

We've transposed the words 'spirit' and 'class' to be synonymous with the class of - Is it already 1977? ("I'll never be a senior!") We've asked ourselves some questions (what's dps mean? Have you heard from Asnuntuck? what's a cardinal? did you do your paper . . . yer?) and we got a lot of answers. We sold magazines, and ourselves. No longer "Just You and Me," we mount the podium to take our stand on the last secure land overlooking new rivers of adventure. And the beat goes on.

BEING OF SOUND

Mary Adler leaves with memories of good times.

Ellen Alaimo leaves to further explore the infinite depths of meditation.

Karen Alderman leaves with the memories of a lot of good times
Kitty Arcari leaves with Phil.

Barry Armata leaves always remembering and thanking the story-tellers of: (a) The Swine Flew, b) The Knocking Hornet, c) "Roman Holiday", d) The Keeper of the Wild Things, e) The Blushing Bride, and . . .

Barbara Barnes leaves all her good times to be remembered.

Donna Bauchiero leaves all the good times, and takes all the memories.

Cheryl Bermari leaves Mr. C. with the hope that all the rest of his days will be super ones. From one of his tigers.

Kim Bertolini leaves Frank and Albert all her forgotten promise: Edmund Bielonko leaves the empty seat he once filled.

Eric Billings leaves as one of the two charter members of the Associated Barn Rakers following the induction of Kenneth Billings.

Laura Binder leaves Cassie Chapman her A's in Accounting, and happiness to her sister, Janet, in her high school years.

Denise Blanchard leaves Keith Quintin to go to all his classes and behave himself.

Deb Brandon wills not.

Bob Brightman leaves his Bio notes to Kathy G., Janet C., or any sophomore who can decipher them.

Sarah Brome leaves, looking back.

Paul Bulgier leaves to Mrs. Crystal his F in Sociology.

Richard Burke leaves his worn-out drawing machine to Mr. Thompson.

Kevin Carron leaves Mike Longo all his punches.

Joyce Champagne leaves her shorthand book gladly to Mrs. Kraus.

Rox Champigny leaves her sister, Sherry, the will to finish, and to Philip, the school to conquer. Good luck to ya!

Mark Chisnall leaves the parking lot.

Lis Christian leaves with a smile, a promise, a tear, . . . and a pretzel.

Janet Cliff leaves Mr. Walat the ball at the top of the hill, in the hopes that it will remain there, permanently. And from K., she leaves with a sound mind.

Vicki Copes leaves her own handbook to the future students of SHS.

Tricia Coppola leaves Mrs. Smoolca with a lot of good memories.

Jane Cordis leaves with one dimple instead of the two she came to SHS with.

Peggy Cox leaves Mr. C's patience and understanding to the next person who needs it.

Tom Crowell leaves the parking lot to Mr. Hartmann.

Tina Cummings leaves her giggle to Audrey Grant.

Ray Dalrymple leaves his High School travelin' shoes to memory, a Bosox Choke to Mr. Grous and a fifties album to Mr. Thompson (dates of songs excluded).

Richard E. Davenport, being of narrow mind and body, hereby leaves Suffield High!

Ray Deedy leaves Scott Phelps and Paul Molleur on Route 201.

Steve DelGreco leaves Mr. Hartmann a golden tennis racquet in hopes of a better game.

David Desrosiers leaves Mr. Graft five free dinners at Hotzy's and a trip to McDonald's; to Mr. K., a banana to munch on; a picture of a dead plant to Mr. M., and to Mr. C., his diet.

Debbie Dixon leaves Suffield High with a lot of happy memories to look back on.

Gary Doyon leaves hoping college is half as much fun as high school and leaves the Jimmy Durante Insurance Policy to Mr. Fisher.

Liz Drakeley leaves for college praying Mr. G. is right, and leaves memories of one more Moondance to Lis.

Lori Drenzek leaves Diane Ringuette and Laurie Doane a party size pizza from the Poquonock Giant Grinder Shop.

Donna Dunai leaves Mr. Pacocha peace - the last of the Dunai's and gowns are gone forever.

Wendy DuPont leaves the good times behind, to look forward to better ones.

LeeAnn Ferrier leaves a roll of peppermint lifesavers to Mr. K.

Ginny Firor leaves Mr. Howard a correcting machine for all of his papers.

Janet Fisher leaves Carmalita to Linda Jackins because she's the only one crazy enough to understand and uphold the tradition.

Al Ford leaves a snake shirt to whoever's man enough to wear it.

Pam Freeman leaves Mr. Walat two free spelling and writing lessons.

Abby Fuller leaves Brent Somers the real story.

Bob Fuller leaves his riding style to Terlesky.

David Gagne leaves with Dr. Connelly still trying to get him to take French.

Jane Gagne leaves blushing, as usual.

Sue Galasso leaves, the last of the "little G's."

Jackie Gemme leaves her lovely barrettes to the next varsity cheerleader with the longest hair; and to Ricky, a nice hot cup of coffee to drink alone in the mornings.

Al Gilbert leaves a kiss to every beautiful girl in the school.

Tom Golec leaves Mr. G. a pair of platform shoes and a new mask to wear.

Linda Goncher leaves Mr. Baker and Mr. Fisher her fantastic skiing ability for when they need a good laugh.

Kathy Gould leaves all the fun of open campus, and sends Jackie much laughter and sunshine.

Jill Gorman leaves her heart to you-know-who, and her gratitude to those people who enriched her thirst for knowledge. To the rest, she leaves the hope that all will have very good lives.

Louise Graham leaves her fashions to Mrs. Kraus and her smiles to Mr. G.

Tom Graham leaves Mr. Graft some more of his movies and good field trips.

Steve Grano leaves two tire marks for someone in the Class of '79 to beat or match.

Merle Belle (alias Vinnie Grieco) leaves and says "thanks for the memories" to the "Belle family."

Theresa Green leaves Kathy Dagleish to solve the mystery of the missing water bottles.

Matt Griffin leaves with his coat, hat, walkin' cane and Travelin' Shoes.

Steve Hanjack leaves diploma in hand and thanks to Mr. C. for his understanding - I hope!

Judi Hastings leaves her adorable little brother, Timmy, to be next year's lone Suffield High School Yankee fan. Beware Mr. Grous and Mr. G.

Bob Hayes leaves his brother a nice long bus ride alone.

Nancy Horanzy leaves all her candy wrappers to Mrs. Kraus' next year's back row typists, and to Naomi Cramer, the corner back seat in Latin.

Cricket Hovey leaves the hope of a world in need for generations to come.

Ann Jennings leaves a box of new golf balls to Mr. Hartmann, her last goal to Mark, and a different number to Scottie.

Brian Johnston leaves his old track shoes, T-shirts and gym shorts.

Lisa Kampmann leaves Susan, Louise and the rest of the class of '78 to stick out another year at good old SHS.

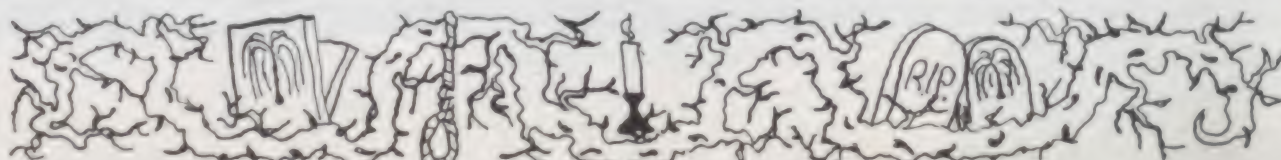

Vicki Kasabian leaves an untamed unicorn, a piece of silver, and a midnight masque to the iguana.

Alane Kasanowski leaves with memories.

John Keinath leaves all his blown snowmobiles to anybody who will take them off his hands.

Colleen Kennedy leaves after one "EEN" and before the other.

James R. Kiely leaves Site D for all those who can remember

FRIEND AND BODY..

being there.

Marji Kolnsberg leaves with a mind full of knowledge and memories, hoping they will become more useful in the future.

Larry Krogh leaves his reputation as a "quick dresser" in the locker room to his brother, Lyndon.

David Kulas leaves "Pickin' and a Grinnin'" with Les Paul and Jim Marshall.

Loren Kulesa leaves Audrey all those times at Hammonasette, and then leaves to join Candy.

Darlene Laflin leaves her brother, Jimmy, all the demerits she almost got.

Lori Leach leaves Mulana with her "I do's"

John Lenk leaves Mr. Baker his brother if he can handle him.

Chuck Lopez leaves his parking place to someone else.

Anthony Lulek leaves all his Physics notes to Katie Hoffman and Ruth Loiseau.

Suzi Lynch leaves Mr. Pacocha the whole piano bench.

George MacIntyre leaves whenever he feels like it.

Mary Ellen MacIntyre leaves hoping some special science teachers will make it without her.

Veronica Mann leaves Mr. Walat an empty ink pen and a notebook full of Chemistry notes; echoes of her constant talking to Mrs. Chapin and to Mr. G., (Tallee), her high heeled shoes from Shorty.

Ray Marek leaves all the broken bones and torn jerseys to all his friends on the neighborhood football team; and leaves this school and teachers in good spirits.

Nancy Martin leaves with memories of the past years and hopes for the future ones.

Rick Martino leaves a pair of untied shoelaces.

Kathy McIntyre leaves Mr. Baker her ESP waves.

Denise Mero leaves.

Libby Merrell leaves Mr. Greenleaf assorted colors of chalk.

Fred Miller leaves that girl he liked to somebody else.

Paul Molleur leaves still not understanding the mole theory.

Donald Morgan leaves.

Lisa Newell leaves Ms. Schramm all her platforms; Mr. G. all her good looks, and Mrs. Chapin her echo in the classroom.

Lori Noe leaves Mr. G. one bottle of tranquilizers and one bottle of Grecian formula for next soccer season.

John Organek hopes to leave alive and in one piece on his motorcycle.

Diane Packard leaves her gracefulness and pointed toes to the next basketball clod of Suffield High.

Penny Patterson leaves Naomi Cramer throwing five leaf clovers at the people sitting in the stands during baseball games, still trying to figure out who's up at bat.

Lori Plamondon leaves her secret calculator to Denise Wells.

Debbie Powell hereby leaves Suffield High, but not completely, because she leaves her little sister D.D. to complete it.

Glen Pugh leaves Pam Patterson to remember him.

Jennifer Reynolds leaves her brother, Zachary, to do the good that she never got to do.

Harry Richards leaves with the hope that every student who walks the halls of SHS will find the love and guidance he has found here.

Danny Rollet leaves Andy Seger to anyone who can dent his head.

Tina Russell leaves Suffield High all her happiness to the students who need it in the coming years.

Lisa Schile leaves taking a lot of good memories and hopes of creating some better ones. To Paula Knox she leaves all the trials and challenges of the copy staff and to Mr. Formanek, a trip to McDonald's complete with a price list (tax included).

Sandi Schile leaves her understanding with the teachers and her sympathy with the students; her hopes for the future to both.

Gregg Schneiders leaves Mimi Schmeir and Mrs. Lamberla Simbel to their own devices.

Brian Scott leaves his parking place to anyone who owns a Chevy Pickup.

Carol Shelanskas leaves with her friends and many memories.

Carol Sheldon leaves Mary Jane to Mrs. Novak and F period study hall to Mr. K.

Karen Sheridan leaves Mr. Walat some stale O-Henry bars, so he'll always remember his loving F period class.

Meredith Sherman leaves the parking lot to Mr. C. and the school to anyone who wants it.

Alex Shinkevich leaves to realize the future as an individual.

Kathy Simpson leaves Mr. C. a bad memory in hopes that he will forget her freshman year.

Chuck Singley leaves his seat in the Guidance office to anyone who wants it.

Ziggy Skawski leaves all his teachers to his sister, Nicolette.

Marion Smith leaves Marlene and Jody to ride the bus, Mr. Walat a keg of root beer, and hopes that Mr. Hartmann finds another dynamic duo.

Walter Smith leaves his locker full of gum wrappers to whoever gets it.

William Smith leaves all the memories of B period study to Janet Krohn.

Donna Smus leaves all the happiness and the experiences which she had to her brother. "Good Luck."

Linda Smus leaves hoping never to forget how close we all were - and yet how far apart.

Bob Snow leaves school and Mr. Clark's class to some other kid. Alvin Stearns just leaves.

Terri Stephen leaves Mrs. Fisher a library full of noisy students.

Karl Stelmack leaves his MG's blown rear end and his parking spot to whoever wants it.

Amy Supple leaves her collection to Robby Waldron.

Mike Sweatland leaves in his Mustang knowing it has never been beaten.

Francis Sweeney leaves Mrs. Kraus to teach his last and youngest brother Jeff.

Celeste Tanguay leaves with best wishes to the future High School band members in hopes that they have as much fun as she has had.

Sandy Taylor leaves another Taylor to Mr. Pacocha.

Steve Thompson leaves you laughing.

Andy Voyer leaves his space in the greaser parking lot to any newcoming senior whose car can fill his wheels.

Todd Waterman leaves Berserk Bob and Quick Carl in the dust.

Barbara Wersaukas leaves a black "Cuda" to Cheryl Tuttle.

Kathy Williams leaves for more good times with Doo, and hopes that Lori and D.D. have better ones.

Kelley Wentworth leaves great times, and wishes that they wouldn't have to end, and a special thanks to Mr. Fuller, Mr. Gregor, and Kim.

Mark Wrenn hereby and forthwith bequeaths a used pencil in fine condition to any person or company of persons who are willing to fetch it. It may be found in a hole in the Chemistry room.

Mary Yuska leaves with memories of the past and hopes for the future.

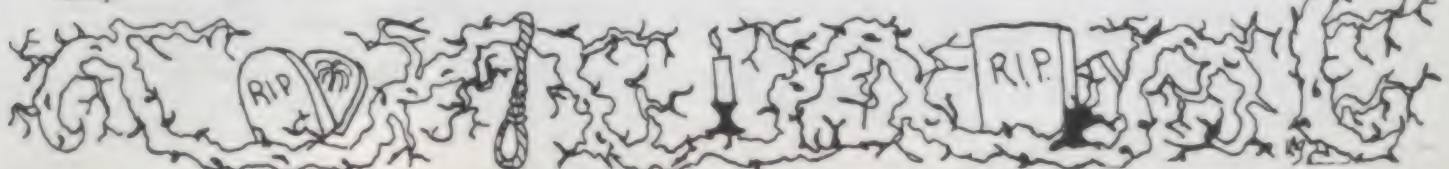

Bruno Zeneski leaves Mr. Grous five autographed pictures of his favorite player, Carl Yastrzemski, and a season ticket for every Yankees' game at Yankee stadium.

Tom Zera leaves.

Darlene Zukowski leaves her red face to all the people that said, "Your face is turning red!" Also, she leaves Mr. Pacocha an organized person who can take all the BULL and Polish jokes that she gave him.

Lynne Zumwalt leaves sour notes, a T-square and giggle fits (instead of "predession") to Patty Diiko, and certain small pleasures, (a cardboard cow, a broken piano, and gin bottles filled with H₂O to Cheryl Lester.

Carl Zygmunt leaves Bob Fuller 50¢ for gas.

Problems

and our faces fade,

We will not be forgotten.

I'm so glad we had this time together
Just to have a laugh or sing a song
Seems we just get started and before
You know it
Comes the time we have to say
So long

There's a time you put aside for Dreamin'
And a time for things you have
To do
But the time I like the best is any Evening
I can spend a moment here with you
When the time comes and I'm feelin'
Lonely
When I'm feelin' oh so blue
I just sit back and think of you only
And the happiness still comes through

That's why I'm glad we had this
Time together
Cause it makes me feel that I
Belong
Seems we just get started and before
You know it
Guess it's time for me to say
So long

"Would you tell me, please,
which way I ought to go from here?"

"That depends a good deal on where you want to get to."

"I don't much care where."

"Then it doesn't matter which way you go."

"So long as I get somewhere."

"Oh, you're sure to do that,
if you only walk long enough."
